TO CUBA WITH LOVE

It was my joy to host a men's team from Church on the Queensway who also paid for the doors, windows and concrete floors in Santa Cruz D N. However, this trip was different, the shortages were extreme, the political climate was tense, air and land travel were always in question.

We hosted the largest Leadership Conference ever in this Presbytery with 114 in attendance. Pastor Ryan and I taught for the two days, transportation and meals were provided, monetary gifts distributed along with books, pens and candies. The worship times were extended. They didn't just sing, it was a heart cry to God. The phrase I hear so often in Cuba reverberated in my own heart, "Only Jesus".

Reapers hosted two services, always packed to overflowing. The altars were lengthy, as youth and children stood asking prayer for their moms and dads battling a variety of life threatening illnesses. Please pray for the young people of Cuba as they are carrying burdens far beyond their years.

UKRAINE

After a 10 year hiatus, it was important to return to Ukraine and a joy to reconnect with my old friend, Walter Semeniuk, from Masters Foundation. Since the air space over Ukraine is closed to commercial flights, we flew to Rzeszów, Poland, followed by a short ride and a walk to the Ukrainian border. We spent the next nine days traveling from Livi to Sumy hosting outreaches, church services, visiting an orphanage and military rehab hospital. Every city and town had war memorials, always with a picture, a candle, and a flag. I met many from the East that were displaced due to the war. We were able to share hope and food with them.

Outreach Service

We prayed for hundreds of people for a variety of needs. So many moms asked for prayer, not for themselves but for their sons, serving in the military. Conservatively we prayed for 145 people for salvation.

At the rehab hospital we went room by room offering a gift bag and prayer. Most of the men were missing a leg from land mines. Nobody turned down our offer of prayer.

I met Andre there, not a big man but tough to the core. I thanked him for his service and sacrifice. He replied, "No need for thanks, it's my obligation to my country". The conversation then turned to hope for the future. He replied, "Hope is important, without it I have no reason to pick up my gun again". He is back with his unit! His words were a reminder to me. For I too have an obligation to the Gospel and a Hope for the future in Jesus.

TIMES OF REFRESHING

I know it sounds rather self serving for an Evangelist to write about hosting extended services but hear me out. Over the past three months Reapers was involved with five Retreats, four across Ontario and one in Florida. The venues varied from outreach, family, spiritual emphasis, leadership equipping, good food, worship and altar. Our souls need more than a Sunday morning service, four times a month. The average church attendance in Canada is once a month. We have weekend sports tournaments, weekend get aways, spa weekends...so, with that in mind, how about a weekend for the heart and soul? You won't regret it!
